Chief FONOFF political section told Embassy Officer Danish Cabinet in meeting yesterday decided not, to adopt any special defense measures at present time result Cuban crisis. Cabinet action followed recommendations both Folketing Foreign Relations Committee and Chief Defense Staff. Following Cabinet meeting PRIMIN Krag made public statement events so far do not indicate requirement intensify military preparedness. PRIMIN also said Danish shipowners association been briefed by FONOFF on Cuban developments and that association representatives told FONOFF no arms or ammunition being carried Cuba on Danish ships nor are such shipments expected in future.

In broadcast last night honoring UN day PRIMIN said in part "It can not be denied that information made public on Cuba's armament with atomic weapons and rockets, and the resulting developments have cast shadow over UN day. Development is expression of aggravated international situation which must cause concern. We feel convinced measures US President has felt it necessary implement based on definite information Cuban developments and close evaluation situation. It is sincere hope of Government both sides will avoid allowing situation develop dangerous direction. Government naturally following developments greatest attention but has found no reason to take special measures present time. USA has now submitted matter to Security Council and must be hoped situation alleviated by UN intervention."
